Prelude

Introit

Worship Leader

We are from north and south.

We are from tiny apartments and expansive homes.

We are from this city and from others far away.

We are from big families and dinners made for one.

We are from stages of grief and stages of love.

We are from hot summers and cold winters.

We are from kitchens with passed down recipes,

and front porches with old, familiar swings.

We are from the dust of the earth and the stars of the sky.

We are from a lot of places, but today we are here.

Today we are together.

Holy God, gather us in.

Gathering in Praise #649 “Gather Us In” V.3

Call to Reconciliation

Worship Leader

The Act of Penitence

One: When people heard that Jesus was from Nazareth,

All: they asked, “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” We confess, God of beginnings, that we have asked the same question. Can anything good come from that side of town?

From a school with poor test scores? From the opposite political party? From a history of addiction? From a faith with doubt? From a church with faults?

Holy God, forgive us for doubting that you are in all things at all times. Open our eyes to see your goodness, not as something that resides here or there, but as the expansive grace that it is. Can anything good come from there? Yes. Always yes. Amen.

The Act of Praise

Family of faith, if you ever ask yourself,

“Can anything good come from this messy and human life of mine?”

Remember this: God is always whispering, “Yes.”

You were created in the image of God.

Your origin story is one of goodness and love from the very beginning.

So hear and believe the good news of the gospel:

God is here. God is at work among us.

We are forgiven. Thanks be to God for a love like that. Amen.
